DETROIT TIGERS AT CINCINNATI REDS — 4-10

Neverez Homers Twice in 10-4 Win

Cincinnati designated hitter Hilário Neverez made his presence felt in the 10-4 Reds triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Neverez was 3 for 4 with 2 home runs. He scored 3 times and drove in 4. The Reds now own a record of 46-64.

Neverez contributed a big hit, a 2-run home run, for Cincinnati in the bottom of the fifth. With his team trailing 4-3, Neverez took a fastball from Roger Turner and stroked the home run to left. His 9th home run of the season allowed the Reds to leap in front, 5-4.

"Whenever you can come through for your ball club, it's a great thing," said Neverez.

TEXAS RANGERS AT LAS VEGAS KNIGHTS — 5-4

Rangers Wiggle Past Las Vegas, 5-4

The Texas Rangers beat the Las Vegas Knights, 5-4, at Big Slick's House of Hardball. The Rangers got a fine performance from designated hitter Yago Peña, who went 2 for 4 with a home run and a triple, while adding 3 RBI and scoring once. Texas is now 67-43, 5½ games up in the National League Rivera Division.

Texas used the timely hitting of Emerson Faust to seize the win. The center fielder stroked a run-scoring single in the top of the ninth inning to put the Rangers on top, 5-4. It was his only hit in 4 at-bats, but it was a game-changer.

"Being able to contribute to a win is always a great feeling," Faust told the Texas Bulletin.

TORONTO BLUE JAYS AT MILWAUKEE BREWERS — 2-1

Toronto Drops Milwaukee, 2-1

Starting pitcher Peter Appelkern was a major factor in the 2-1 Toronto Blue Jays triumph over the Milwaukee Brewers. Appelkern, now 6-12, was the winner. In 6.2 innings, he gave up 6 hits, while striking out 8, walking 2, and allowing 1 run. The Blue Jays now have a mark of 55-55.

Marcos González, who finished 2nd in the NL in extra base hits with 84 in 2069, had a direct impact on the outcome. González contributed a run-scoring ground out in the top of the fifth inning to put Toronto up, 2-1.

"Peter -- I just love the competitor in him," said Blue Jays manager Rich Hernandez.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS AT MINNESOTA TWINS — 9-3

Crawford Helps Nationals Beat Twins, 9-3

The Washington Nationals beat the Minnesota Twins, 9-3, at Target Field. The win was due in part to left fielder Alexander Crawford, who was 3 for 4 with a home run, a double, and a walk. He scored 2 runs and drove in 3. Mark Weiss got the win, improving to 3-5. He held the Twins to 2 runs on 5 hits over 6.2 innings, while striking out 5 and walking 1. The Nationals improved to 45-65.

With Washington leading 2-0 in the top of the fifth, Crawford hit a changeup from Brian Byrne for a 2-run home run. It was his 24th home run of the season and put the Nationals ahead, 4-0.

"When you don't put the pitches where they're supposed to be, they hit you hard," said Minnesota skipper Noah Jensen.

CHICAGO CUBS AT ATLANTA BRAVES — 13-9

Great Effort by Braves RF Stoffer Not Enough in 13-9 Loss

Atlanta left fielder Dustin Stoffer had a good game in a losing cause. His team fell, 13-9, to Chicago at Truist Park. Stoffer went 4 for 4 with 2 home runs, 2 singles, and a walk, while scoring 5 runs and driving in 3. Aiden Kuester got the win, improving to 2-3. He worked 6 innings, giving up 5 runs on 7 hits, while striking out 5 and walking 2. The third-place Cubs sport a record of 53-57.

Chicago right fielder Dade Craig contributed a timely at-bat in the top of the third. With two down, he hit a fastball to left field for a grand slam home run. It was his 18th home run of the season and put the Cubs ahead, 9-1.

"The name of the game is scoring runs," Craig said. "We did a good job of that today."

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS AT LONDON ROYALS — 5-4

Royals Beaten By Giants, 5-4

San Francisco beat London at Kauffman Stadium, eking out a 5-4 win. The triumph was primarily due to shortstop Fabiano González. He went 2 for 4 with a home run. He drove in 3 runs and scored once. The winning pitcher was former first round draft pick Tom Rinaldi. He tossed 92 pitches over 5 innings, allowing 4 runs on 8 hits. The second-place Giants are 54-56.

González had a timely hit for San Francisco in the top of the sixth. With San Francisco trailing 4-2, he turned a 1-0 fastball into a 3-run home run. It was his 4th home run of the season, making it 5-4, San Francisco.

"Trying isn't good enough in this league," said González. "You've got to get results."

MONTREAL EXPOS AT SEATTLE MARINERS — 1-2

Expos Lose to Mariners, 2-1

In a tight contest between the Seattle Mariners and the Montreal Expos, Dom Williams was the determining factor. The Seattle right-hander sparkled in his team's 2-1 win. Williams, the winner, moves to 4-2. He threw 7.2 innings of 3-hit ball, while fanning 8 and giving up 3 walks. Miguel Urias earned his 19th save in 23 chances.

With scoring opportunities rare, the Mariners had to cash in when they had the chance. One such opportunity presented itself in the bottom of the fourth, when first baseman Jonny Keating hit a run-scoring single. The single came off Reinaldo Pakingan and made the score 1-0, Mariners. Keating went 2-4 with 2 singles.

"There's still time to turn this season around," said Keating.

Seattle is in 5th place in the American League Alvarado Division with a record of 50-60.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX AT LOS ANGELES DODGERS — 1-0

White Sox Shut Out Dodgers, 1-0

In a tight tilt between Chicago and Los Angeles, pitcher Cory Neal was a key contributor. The left-hander earned accolades for his standout performance in the 1-0 White Sox win. Jess Niemi closed it out for Chicago, earning his 27th save. The 4th-place White Sox now have a record of 58-52.

Chicago used a well-timed hit by José Luís Santos to capture the win. The shortstop socked a run-scoring double in the top of the fifth inning to put the White Sox ahead, 1-0. Though it was his only hit in 2 at-bats, it was important.

"We came in and got the job done. That's what it's all about in this business," said Santos.

NEW YORK METS AT PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES — 11-4

Furtado Socks Phillies in 11-4 Mets Win

New York left fielder Evan Furtado contributed significantly to his team's 11-4 win over the Philadelphia Phillies. Furtado, who finished 4th in the AL in doubles with 45 in 2069, went 2 for 4 with 3 runs scored to lead the offensive attack for the Mets. The losing streak for Philadelphia has now reached 4 games.

New York used the hitting of Tyler Ross to pick up the win. The first baseman clubbed a solo home run in the top of the second inning to put the Mets on top, 2-0. For the game, Ross had 1 home run and 1 single in 4 at-bats.

"It's always nice to be on the winning side," Furtado told the New York Citizen. "But we take nothing for granted."

CALIFORNIA ANGELS AT MEMPHIS BLUES — 0-4

California Bats Go Silent in 4-0 Loss

Memphis turned a good performance from starting pitcher Paul Hoffmann into a 4-0 triumph over the California Angels at Blues Stadium. Hoffmann picked up the win for Memphis, going 6.2 innings. He gave up no runs on 3 hits. He now sports a record of 5-2. Their 62-48 record puts the Blues second in the American League Alvarado Division.

The Angels had been locked in a 0-0 tie with the Blues going into the bottom of the fourth inning. That changed quickly when the 28-year old shortstop Todd Rembert came to the plate. Rembert hit a 2-run double on a 0-1 slider from California hurler Elpidio Stancell. It was Rembert's 23rd double of the year.

"Paul didn't beat around the bush," said Memphis field general Vince Hendrix. "He was all business."

BOSTON RED SOX AT INDIANAPOLIS IGNITION — 9-10

Ignition Clip Red Sox, 10-9

In a high-scoring contest between Indianapolis and Boston, second baseman Josiah Spiegel was a difference-maker. Spiegel, who is tied for 9th in the AL in doubles with 28, distinguished himself in the 10-9 Indianapolis win. He was 3 for 4 with a double and 2 singles. He drove in 3 runs and scored once. John Andrew Stacy recorded the save, his 7th. Indianapolis has an impressive 73-37 record.

In the bottom of the sixth, the Ignition grabbed the lead when Spiegel hit his 28th double of the season. The 2-run double off Heath Spires made it 10-9, Indianapolis.

"Both teams had plenty of clutch hits," said Spiegel. "It made for an exciting game."

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS AT VANCOUVER CASCADES — 5-2

Cardinals Need Extra Innings to Top Cascades, 5-2

The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Vancouver Cascades, 5-2, at Royal Port Stadium. St. Louis left fielder Kyle Kindred led the way. He went 4 for 5 with a home run, a double, and 2 singles. He drove in 4 runs and scored once. Picking up the save was five-time All-Star Dilan Lee. With the win over Vancouver, the Cardinals improved to 65-45.

Kindred had a game-changing home run in the top of the tenth. On a 1-0 sinker from Jim Hallett, he banged a 3-run home run to left, giving the Cardinals a 5-2 lead. It was the 13th home run of the year for Kindred.

"Very good win for our guys," said Kindred.

CLEVELAND INDIANS AT COLORADO ROCKIES — 7-8

Rockies Trip Indians, 8-7, in Extra Innings

Coors Field was rocking after an exciting Rockies win.

The Colorado Rockies defeated the Cleveland Indians, 8-7, in 11 innings. Hansel Monge, who finished 4th in the NL in doubles with 45 in 2067, played a big role. Monge was 3-5 with a home run and 2 doubles. He drove in 2 runs and scored once for the Rockies in the win. With the win, Colorado upped its record to 59-51.

The decisive blow was delivered by Abel Lagunas in the bottom of the 11th when he hit a run-scoring double off two-time All-Star Steven Vineberg to win the game for Colorado. The home crowd went nuts.

"We got the victory," said Lagunas. "That's all that matters at the end of the day."

SAN DIEGO PADRES AT PORTLAND HOPS — 2-4

San Diego Defeated By Hops, 4-2

The Portland Hops locked up a win at The BeerGarden, knocking off the San Diego Padres, 4-2. On the mound for Portland was right-hander Lonnie Schmieg. He played a major role in the triumph. The Hops are now 48-62, while the Padres fall to 44-66.

Rick Abbadessa dealt the Padres a blow in the bottom of the fifth. Batting with the bases loaded and Portland leading 2-1, Abbadessa hit a first pitch sinker for a 2-run single.

"I thought we played a nice game," Abbadessa told the Portland News. "Good pitching, timely hitting, it was all there."

HOUSTON ASTROS AT DETROIT TIGERS — 5-3

On Road, Houston Beats Detroit, 5-3

The Houston Astros licked the Detroit Tigers, 5-3. Josh Segura deserved a big chunk of the credit. The right fielder went 3 for 5 with 3 singles. He drove in 2 runs and scored once for the Astros. At 37-74, Houston is in last place in the National League Torres Division.

Joshua Brooks had a big 2-run triple for the Astros in the top of the second inning. With Houston leading 1-0 and runners on 1st and 2nd, he got a fastball from fireballing left-hander A.J. Vargas and swatted a triple to right-center. It was his 3rd triple of the season, and more importantly, it put the Astros ahead, 3-0.

"My job is to go out and play as hard as I can for the Astros," said Brooks.

ATLANTA BRAVES AT ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKS — 1-2

LeMoine Delivers Walk-Off Win for Diamondbacks

The Atlanta Braves wasted an inspired, 6-inning effort from starter Nicolas Almeida, falling, 2-1, to the Arizona Diamondbacks at Chase Field. Arizona sits in first place in the National League Sparrow Division at 67-44.

The clutch at-bat came in the bottom of the ninth inning, when Arizona shortstop Cain LeMoine, facing Luis Almanza, had a run-scoring sacrifice fly. It gave the Diamondbacks the 2-1 win.

"The house was rockin'," said LeMoine.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS AT TORONTO BLUE JAYS — 5-6

Blue Jays Earn Late 6-5 Win

In a tight contest at Rogers Centre, the Toronto Blue Jays edged the San Francisco Giants by the score of 6-5. Toronto second baseman Jon Charles, who blasted 1 home run, was a key contributor. Zach Fuentes, now 1-0, was credited with the win in 0.2 innings of relief. He allowed no runs on no hits, while striking out 1 and walking 1. Toronto bumps their record to 56-55 with the win.

Toronto took a 6-5 lead on Marcos González's 31st home run of the season. The solo home run, which González hit in the bottom of the eighth, left San Francisco pitcher Kent Cadwallader visibly frustrated.

"You know, at the end of the day, it's about who scores the most runs," said Toronto manager Rich Hernandez.

MINNESOTA TWINS AT NEW YORK YANKEES — 7-5

Twins Down Yankees, 7-5

Tony Contreras powered the Minnesota Twins to a win over the New York Yankees. The final score was 7-5. The Minnesota second baseman was phenomenal. He stroked 2 extra-base hits, including 1 home run and 1 double. Nevada Redding finished the game for Minnesota and earned his 30th save. Minnesota is now 53-58, New York 37-74.

Contreras had a game-changing home run in the top of the ninth. On a 1-0 fastball from Anardo Mejia, he banged a 3-run home run to left-center, giving the Twins a 7-5 lead. It was the 10th home run of the year for Contreras.

"It's the best feeling when you come through for your teammates," said Contreras.

CINCINNATI REDS AT CHICAGO CUBS — 6-1

Reds Make Cubs 6-1 Losers

Chicago had no answer for Cincinnati Reds starter Sammy Marsh, who flummoxed Cubs hitters as the Reds cruised to victory, 6-1. The loss makes Chicago 53-58.

Cincinnati used a clutch at-bat from Tristan Barton to capture the win. The left fielder hammered a 2-run home run in the top of the third inning to put the Reds ahead, 2-0. It was his lone hit in 4 at-bats, but it was a humdinger.

Said losing manager Luke Branscome: "It's very easy to sit in an ivory tower and critique the pitching, but the bottom line is we need to score runs."

LOS ANGELES DODGERS AT ST. LOUIS CARDINALS — 3-5

Cardinals Beat Dodgers, 5-3

Busch Stadium was the site of a competitive game between the Los Angeles Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

The St. Louis Cardinals picked up a win at Busch Stadium, taking down the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-3. Starting pitcher Monty Mitter was a big reason why. Mitter, now 8-4, was the winner. In 6 innings, he gave up 6 hits, while striking out 4, walking 0, and allowing 3 runs. Dilan Lee locked down his 22nd save.

Chase Judge was 2-4 with 2 singles, while adding 2 RBI for St. Louis. The 31-year old first baseman had a key at-bat in the bottom of the fourth. With two out and the bases loaded, he broke a 2-2 tie with a 2-run single off Harrison Haydon. It was his 69th hit of the season.

"We took home the win," said Judge. "What's not to like?"

With the win, St. Louis upped its record to 66-45.

INDIANAPOLIS IGNITION AT CLEVELAND INDIANS — 7-0

7-0 Win Gets Indianapolis to 74-37

The Indianapolis Ignition tallied a win at Tecumseh Field, throttling the Cleveland Indians, 7-0. Starting pitcher Ignatius Valdez was a big reason for his team's success. Valdez yielded no runs over 6 innings to notch the win. He scattered 2 hits, walked 1, and struck out 6. His record improves to 11-6. Matt Schwing closed it out for Indianapolis, earning his 6th save.

Indianapolis used the timely hitting of Pablo Batista to seize the win. The pinch hitter stroked a run-scoring single in the top of the seventh inning to put the Ignition on top, 1-0. It was his only hit in 2 at-bats, but it was a game-changer.

"This win gets us that much closer to where we want to be," Batista said in postgame remarks.

Indianapolis has won 4 straight, while Cleveland has lost 4 in a row.

COLORADO ROCKIES AT CALIFORNIA ANGELS — 1-2

With Late Score, Angels Beat Rockies

The Colorado Rockies got a superb performance from pitcher Hudson Mahfouz. Still, it wasn't enough to beat California. The Angels won the game,

2-1. Mahfouz threw 6.1 innings of shutout ball. Ryan Tynes was called on to finish, recording his 17th save. The Angels now have a mark of 47-64.

California took a 2-1 lead on Jason Ball's 24th home run of the season. The 2-run home run, which Ball hit in the bottom of the eighth, left Colorado pitcher Lewis Mikesic visibly frustrated.

"I'll probably toss and turn tonight," Colorado manager Rúben Engana said, following the tough loss.

VANCOUVER CASCADES AT SAN DIEGO PADRES — 1-3

Cascades Beaten, 3-1, by San Diego

The San Diego Padres earned a win at Petco Park, stopping the Vancouver Cascades, 3-1. Starting pitcher Tobias Slavich played a big role in his team's success. Slavich, now 3-4, was the winner. In 6 innings, he gave up 4 hits, while striking out 7, walking 2, and allowing 1 run. The Padres sit in last place in the American League Sandoval Division with a record of 45-66.

Lee Lingle had a big solo home run for the Padres in the bottom of the fifth inning. With San Diego leading 2-1 and the bases empty, he sized up a changeup from 25-year old right-handed pitcher Elijah LaRue and punished it. The result was his 5th home run of the season, which put the Padres on top, 3-1.

Lingle said the team appreciates the support from the fans. "I'm glad we could reward them with a good win," he said after the game.

LAS VEGAS KNIGHTS AT WASHINGTON NATIONALS — 3-7

Nationals Bump Off Knights, 7-3

Washington defeated Las Vegas, 7-3, in large part due to 14-year veteran Brady Mozden. Mozden drove in 3 runs. The shortstop had 1 double and 1 home run for the Nationals. Jamie Feldmann, now 3-5, picked up the win in relief. He allowed no runs on 2 hits in 2 innings. Keston Craft was called on to finish, recording his 1st save.

The Knights had been locked in a 1-1 tie with the Nationals going into the bottom of the fourth inning. That changed quickly when the 30-year old center fielder Jaden Card came to the plate. Card hit a 2-run home run on a 0-1 sinker from Las Vegas hurler Tad Pucker. It was Card's 4th home run of the year.

"It was a solid, all-around game for us," said Washington manager Obi-wan Suzor.

Parham Stars for Braves in 10-9 Win

The Atlanta Braves outscored the Arizona Diamondbacks, 10-9. Among the hitting stars was catcher Bolan Parham. Parham, who finished 5th in the NL in batting average with .315 in 2067, went 3 for 5 with a home run and 2 doubles, while adding 5 RBI and scoring once. Atlanta pitcher Liam Morris got the win. He's now 4-2. Josiah Ficek was tagged with the loss. Luis Almanza closed the game out for Atlanta, earning his 18th save.

Parham contributed a big hit, a 2-run home run, for Atlanta in the top of the ninth. With his team trailing 9-8, Parham took a fastball from Josiah Ficek and stroked the home run to left. His 10th home run of the season allowed the Braves to leap in front, 10-9.

"We'll grab a cold beverage tonight and go after another win tomorrow," Parham said.

The Braves, at 69-43, have a comfortable 14½-game lead in their division.

MIAMI MARLINS AT TEXAS RANGERS — 3-4

Rangers Squeeze By Miami, 4-3

The Texas Rangers picked up a win at Globe Life Park in Arlington, knocking off the Miami Marlins, 4-3, in 10 innings. On the mound for Texas was right-hander Koda Burgos. He played a pivotal role in the triumph. The winner in relief was Ian Poppova. He is now 4-3. The right-hander allowed 1 run on 2 hits in 2 innings. Texas, at 68-44, holds down first place in the National League Rivera Division.

Texas got a knockout punch from Cody Nguyen. The shortstop hammered a 2-run home run in the bottom of the tenth inning to win the game. It might've been his only hit, but it decided the outcome.

"Obviously, you want to go out there and be good every time out," said Burgos. "I take the ball every day with the same mindset."

HOUSTON ASTROS AT DETROIT TIGERS — 4-6

Tigers Bang Out 6-4 Win Versus Houston

The Detroit Tigers defeated the Houston Astros, 6-4, at Comerica Park. Isaac Lee was one of the standouts for Detroit. His 3 hits included 1 single and 2 triples -- this in addition to the 2 runs he scored and 1 he knocked in. Detroit pitcher Yaisnier Matos earned the win, hiking his record to 1-0. Carter Colbert suffered the loss. Detroit currently is in 5th place in the National League Sparrow Division at 46-66.

With Detroit leading 2-1 in the bottom of the fifth, Lee hit a run-scoring single off Houston hurler Carter Colbert. It was the 67th hit of the season for Lee and put his team ahead, 3-1.

"I'm glad we can make our fans happy with a win," Lee told the Detroit Bulletin.

PORTLAND HOPS AT CHICAGO WHITE SOX — 3-17

Tulloch Excels, Chicago Blows Out Portland

The Chicago White Sox firmly defeated the Portland Hops, 17-3, at Guaranteed Rate Field. The Chicago offense was lit. Emilio Tulloch, for one, had a solid game. He went 3-4 with a home run, 2 singles, and was hit by a pitch. He scored 3 runs and drove in 4 for the White Sox. Rodney Burgess was called on to finish, recording his 3rd save. Chicago is 4th in the American League Sandoval Division with a record of 60-52.

A key moment came with two out in the bottom of the first. That's when Tulloch hit a fastball from Jason Washington for a 2-run single, putting Chicago up, 2-0.

"We lit up the scoreboard," said Chicago manager Calvin Elia.

MEMPHIS BLUES AT BOSTON RED SOX — 8-10

Bermudez Gets 5 Hits

Donovan Bermudez put on a hitting clinic as the Boston Red Sox dumped the Memphis Blues, 10-8, at Fenway Park.

The Boston center fielder made Memphis defenders earn their pay, lashing Memphis pitching for 5 hits in 5 at-bats in the game. He told BNN reporters after the game that his strategy was "just hit it where they pitched it."

"Too often I try too hard to pull the ball," Bermudez said in his postgame press conference. "Today, I just went with the pitch."

Donovan Bermudez singled in the 1st, hit an RBI double in the 2nd, singled in the 4th, hit a two-run double in the 5th and hit an RBI double in the 7th.

To date this season, Bermudez is hitting .324 with 6 home runs.

VANCOUVER CASCADES AT SAN DIEGO PADRES — 1-4

Padres Take Home 4-1 Win Over Vancouver

Starting pitcher Kevin McCoy had a solid game. He was a big reason the San Diego Padres throttled the Vancouver Cascades, 4-1. Picking up the save was 28-year old right-handed pitcher B.J. Hicks. At 46-66, the Padres claim last place in the American League Sandoval Division.

Jeremiah French chipped in a 2-run home run for San Diego in the bottom of the fourth. For the game, the shortstop had 2 hits in 4 at-bats with 1 home run, 1 single, 1 run scored, and 2 RBI.

French attributed the win to his team's "focus and intensity."

CHICAGO CUBS AT HOUSTON ASTROS — 1-2

Astros Scratch Out 2-1 Win

The Houston Astros had to overcome a fine effort from Chicago pitcher Fred Brancaccio to win, 2-1, at Minute Maid Park. Brancaccio went 6 innings and allowed 2 runs. Reliever Eddie Anderson picked up the win. His record improves to 2-2. Fred Brancaccio took the loss. After today's action, Houston sits at 38-75, while Chicago falls to 53-60.

The Cubs had been locked in a 1-1 tie with the Astros going into the bottom of the sixth inning. That changed quickly when the 31-year old left fielder Carlton Orta came to the plate. Orta hit a solo home run on a 2-2 fastball from Chicago hurler Fred Brancaccio. It was Orta's 5th home run of the year.

"Tough loss," said Chicago manager Luke Branscome. "Tough one to swallow."

NEW YORK METS AT TAMPA BAY RAYS — 3-4

Rays Drop Mets, 4-3

The Tampa Bay Rays beat the New York Mets, 4-3, with major props going to catcher Randolph Kistner. On the day, Kistner was 2-2 with a home run, a double, and a walk for the Rays. Chase Pellini, the winner, is now 7-5. He struck out 4 and walked 3 over 5 innings, while allowing 1 run on 5 hits. The save was credited to Bernie Kiser, his 3rd.

With Tampa Bay leading 3-0 in the bottom of the fourth, Kistner came up to bat against New York pitcher Mark Jones. Kistner hit a fastball to right-center for a solo home run. His 2nd home run of the season put the Rays on top, 4-0.

"Randolph leaves the last at-bat behind him, whether it was good or bad, and goes up there and competes on every pitch," said Tampa Bay manager Evan Sietsema.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS AT PORTLAND HOPS — 4-1

St. Louis Downs Portland, 4-1

St. Louis pitcher Richard Poyser had a large part in his team subduing the Portland Hops, 4-1. The opposition could never mount much of a rally against the right-hander. Poyser picked up the win for St. Louis, going 5.1 innings. He gave up 1 run on 6 hits. He now sports a record of 6-4. At 67-46, the Cardinals claim third place in the American League Sandoval Division.

A.J. Jaimea had a direct impact on the outcome. Jaimea contributed a 2-run single in the top of the seventh inning to put St. Louis up, 4-1.

Said Portland manager Nelson Espinoza: "You just have to tip your cap sometimes."

CALIFORNIA ANGELS AT INDIANAPOLIS IGNITION — 6-4

In 10, California Sinks Indianapolis, 6-4

The California Angels needed 10 innings to defeat the Indianapolis Ignition, 6-4, at PepsiCo Park. California right fielder Hernando Sepulveda had a superb performance. He was 2 for 2 with 2 home runs. He drove in 4 runs and scored twice. California, at 48-65, occupies third place in the American League Pons Division.

Sepulveda had a game-changing home run in the top of the tenth. On a 1-2 slider from Edwin Laliberte, he banged a 2-run home run to right, giving the Angels a 6-4 lead. It was the 15th home run of the year for Sepulveda.

"This game showed the grit and grind of our guys," said Sepulveda.

SAN DIEGO PADRES AT LOS ANGELES DODGERS — 4-7

Dodgers Get 7-4 Win Versus San Diego

Orik Grulke did all he could to help his team win. In the end, though, it wasn't enough to keep the San Diego Padres from being beaten, 7-4, to the Los Angeles Dodgers at Dodger Stadium. Grulke went 2-3 with a home run and a walk, while adding 2 RBI and scoring once. Los Angeles is looking good at 85-28.

One big at-bat came with runners on 2nd and 3rd in the bottom of the fifth inning. Royce Bankston, who is tied for 4th in the AL in RBI with 84, hit a sacrifice fly off San Diego pitcher Yhan Santana. The Dodgers went on to win the game.

"We're one win closer to our goal," Bankston said in postgame remarks.

NEW YORK YANKEES AT LAS VEGAS KNIGHTS — 6-8

Yankees Lose, 8-6, as Knights Rally

New York third baseman Jeronimo Guzman had a good game in a losing cause. His team fell, 8-6, to Las Vegas in 10 innings. Guzman was 4 for 5 with a home run and 3 singles. He drove in 2 runs and scored once. Georg Howard picked up the win in relief. His record improves to 2-4. Anardo Mejia suffered the loss. At 47-67, the Knights claim last place in the National League Sparrow Division.

Las Vegas got a clutch hit from Steve Keenan. The center fielder launched a 2-run home run in the bottom of the tenth inning to win the game. It was his only hit in 5 at-bats, but it was a kill shot.

"Put a star next to this win," Keenan said.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS AT PORTLAND HOPS — 2-13

Big Day for Noboa: Swats 5 Hits

Monty Noboa was the King of Swing at The BeerGarden in the 13-2 Portland Hops win over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Portland center fielder stepped into the batter's box 6 times against St. Louis and delivered 5 hits. It was a sensational game for him.

"Unbelievable feeling," he told the press. "It felt good. 5-for-6 isn't bad for your batting average either."

Monty Noboa doubled in the 1st, singled in the 2nd, singled in the 4th, struck out in the 6th, hit an RBI single in the 7th and doubled in the 8th.

So far this year in 105 games, Noboa is hitting .274 with 12 home runs, 42 RBIs and 67 runs scored.

SAN DIEGO PADRES AT LOS ANGELES DODGERS — 2-10

Dodgers Sink Padres, 10-2

The first-place Los Angeles Dodgers took on the San Diego Padres in front of a spirited crowd.

Dodgers left fielder Amory Brownstein left his mark on his team's 10-2 win over the San Diego Padres. Brownstein went 2 for 3 with a double and a walk for Los Angeles in the contest. Los Angeles reliever Richard Dilanian picked up the win, raising his record to 6-1. Mike Gubitz was tagged with the loss.

Royce Bankston had a big 2-run home run for the Dodgers in the bottom of the fifth inning. With Los Angeles leading 2-0 and a runner on 3rd, he sized up a changeup from 25-year old right-handed pitcher Mike Gubitz and punished it. The result was his 24th home run of the season, which put the Dodgers on top, 4-0.

"They beat us, they beat us soundly," said losing manager Baltemar De León.

Los Angeles is first in the American League Pons Division with a record of 86-28.

MONTREAL EXPOS AT PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES — 3-2

Expos Score 3-2 Win Over Philadelphia

Montreal picked up a win at Citizens Bank Park, bumping off the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2. Pitcher Isaac Munroe was a major reason the Expos emerged victorious. Today's win puts Montreal at 71-43, while Philadelphia falls to 51-63.

Montreal took a 3-1 lead on Wayne Baker's 10th home run of the season. The solo home run, which Baker hit in the top of the seventh, left Philadelphia pitcher Lombard Morrow visibly frustrated.

"We're our own worst enemy right now," said Philadelphia skipper Corey Barrentine.
